Synopsis:

Twenty years after Abby & Wayne Tyler have their son, Billy Wayne Tyler, who has the gift of miraculous healing and Liz Hawkins births Johnny Hank Hawkins, a hell-fire and brimstone minister, life in Clear Lake has settled down after the tragedy of Hank Hawkins’ death at Betwixt. Margaritaville fails as a night club due to super natural events keeping people away in droves. The next move from the Clear Lake crew is to turn Margaritaville into a planetarium style restaurant called Merlins. It, too, failed to produce income. After Billy Wayne Tyler miraculously heals a young boy, they turn the establishment into Miracle Church. God blesses the church.

At the same time that Abby and Liz give birth to their sons, Dr. Helle Guyion gives birth to her son, Helel, a Hebrew name for “the morning star associated with a proud, rebellious archangel, Lucifer, renamed by God to Satan, an angel who laments the loss of his beauty.” Helel secretly studies at Satan’s feet for five years and gains superior knowledge in every subject known to mankind plus miraculous powers no one has ever seen since Jesus Christ walked the earth. Helel is the son of perdition prophesied in the Bible, or the anti-Christ.

Helel was conceived when Helle Guyion took Dr. Eric Palmer to the foot of Satan's throne at Mount Zaphon, called Betwixt. Eric Palmer was declared insane by NASA psychiatrists and sent to a permanent insane asylum.

Today, the three offspring will finally meet and all hell erupts. Helel meets with the modern day Axis powers: Russia, China, N. Korea and Iranian heads of state to devise a plan. He is offering One World Government, for sale to the highest bidder and does miracles before these powerful men to display his powers. No one trusts anyone but when Helel tells them about a super, missing ingredient, Zaphonite, an element searched for by scientists for decades, that when added to a hydrogen bomb, destroys everything but leaves no trace of radiation, he tells the powers to choose a test site and he will stand on it and not be harmed. The test is done, Helel survives the blast and the Axis powers have no choice but to continue with Helel's plan, knowing that Helel could do it to them and use the U.S. as his instrument.

The U.S. Geological survey receives word from their India counterparts that there has been a large seismic anomaly in the Indian Ocean on a barely habited island, Pitil, which has no significance to any nation. They send a secret team of scientists to Pitil Island. Their findings defy the laws of physics and the laws of thermodynamics. President Faulkner is briefed and ups the Defcon level of security.

Helel holds a mass rally of millions of demons in the ancient city of Babylon to give instructions for world-wide chaos. Marduk, a false Mesopotamian god, is Helel's demon lieutenant. The plan to attack the United States by all four Axis nations is set in place and begin World War III. Only God, Himself, knows the outcome...

Act 1-The Set Up

The Clear Lake group are going through difficult times. Their efforts failed to produce sufficient income with their club turned restaurant. The next generation is born to Abby & Wayne Tyler as well as Liz Hawkins. Life gets better watching their sons grow up.

When Billy Wayne Tyler was a young teenager, he healed an afflicted little boy in front of the entire church. News spread of his healings and many attend Miracle Church, hoping to be healed, but many were disappointed. Billy Wayne only healed people when he got the call from God and that was in God's timing, not Billy Wayne's. Yet the people came...

Gordon, Wayne's angel, who had an earthly appearance of a 100 year old Mr. Bo Jangles type of blues singer and guitarist, kept close watch over the church. As the next generation grew up, they were faced with many tests and challenges to build their character. Billy Wayne was nothing like his formerly, womanizing dad, Wayne, but was more of an introvert. His cousin, Johnny Hank, on the other hand was a red-haired, motorcycle riding young man that feared nothing, sort of a burley John the Baptist type. As they grew, they found girlfriends and went through the trials of relationships. Johnny Hank could blast out a hell fire and brimstone sermon any time he felt is necessary to spread the truth like only he could do.

For some unknown reason, both Billy Wayne and Johnny Hank started questioning Pastors Randy and Pastor Stark about the meanings in Revelation. They simply didn't understand all of the symbolism about the end times. Their group begin the study and little did they know, they were about to live it, hence the title, Z-Gen, The Last Generation.

Act 2-The Conflict

The last words of Dr. Helle Guyion, the most evil woman in the world, to Liz Hawkins and Abby Tyler, twenty years ago when they all became pregnant at the same time was, "I doubt that our sons will be good friends." That was an understatement.

As Abby and Liz's sons grew in strength and faith, Dr. Guyion's son, Helel, grew in the supernatural ways of pure evil. He secretly studied at the feet of Satan for five years at Mount Zaphon in a dimension known as Betwixt. His Mom thought he was away at a very expensive university and by her own choice had nothing to do with the raising of her son. She had her own path to follow gaining influence with bad people with bad intentions. When Helel returned with all of his knowledge and powers, he immediately began challenging his mother to tell him where he was born and who was his earthly father. Helle resisted, knowing her own powers.

It was time for a "who has the most powers" showdown between Helle and her son Helel. Helel won easily. Instead of Helle figuring out how to use her son in her own demonic paths, Helel began using his "Mummy Dearest" for his own purposes. They hated each other.

As Helel meets with the Axis powers and shows them demonic miracle after demonic miracle, the son of perdition finally has them where he wants them. The Axis powers is not completely on board to attack the super-power United States but they are more fearful of Helel and what he could do to them in reverse. They agree to the massive attack. World War III is about to begin.

Meanwhile, Helel instructs his forces of demons to reign terror on the Clear Lake group after going there to meet his real and defiant father, Dr. Eric Palmer. Helel hates all Christians and wants to strike fear into them so they will abandon their faith. What happens in Clear Lake resembled The Walking Dead as demons inhabit the bodies of the recently dead, kidnap Spring and challenge the Clear Lake crew to come and get her...

With all the intelligence gathered by satellite pictures, troop movements in the Axis powers and the CIA, President Faulkner calls for the dossier on the Clear Lake happenings twenty years ago after having a dream. He can only remember "Wayne Tyler, Clear Lake, Texas" from his dream. He meets with Wayne Tyler and later with Mr. Elroy who both give him the message from Revelation, "Be Ready." Faulkner raises the Defcon level higher than the U.S. has ever experienced, trying to prepare for an imminent attack. All systems are ready.

Act 3-The Conclusion

As an author, I can actually say that it hurts me to give away the ending. It is so super natural in nature that during a time of a massive attack on the United States of America it tests the courage, physical psyche and faith of anyone and everyone experiencing this horrid event. This is definitely a heart-attack situation that no people or nation has ever faced before. I will say that “God is still on His mighty throne, He has this!” Nothing happens outside of Jehovah’s timing.
